1 A. No.

2 Q. Had you ever heard of Mr. Hymes before the
3 day of the incident?

4 A. I hadn't, no.

5 Q. What was the first you saw -- excuse me.

6 What was the first you saw or heard of
7 Mr. Hymes on the day of the incident?

8 A. The day of the incident in our morning
9 muster. I'm not sure if you need a clarification on 10 muster.

11 Q. My understanding is it's kind of a briefing
12 to the deputies --

13 A. Exactly. That's what it is.

14 Q. -- on what's going on in the jail?

15 A. Yes.

16 Q. What did you hear about Mr. Hymes at 17 morning muster on day of the incident?

18 A. That morning, the muster was basically
19 about Mr. Hymes. And we had heard -- we were told
20 that he was -- he had the most violent CDC record in 21 history, that he had a propensity to kick guards out
22 at the knee, and that he retired out a few; that he
23 liked to sue departments and -- and that, you know,
24 he was just violence. You know, a chaos-causing
25 individual was basically what we were told.

1 Q. And who provided you with that information?

2 A. The supervisors.

3 Q. Do you remember who they were?

4 A. Well, I don't want to -- I mean -- I mean,
5 I know that Sergeant Bliss was there, probably the 6 captain was there. Some senior deputy that was
7 just -- probably pretty much our whole supervisory
8 staff was probably there.

9 Q. So apart from who was there, do you
10 remember who provided you the information about
11 Mr. Hymes?

12 A. I wouldn't say it was any one of the 13 supervisors. I think that they were all, you know,
14 communicating the information to us, as best as I
15 can remember it, you know.

16 Q. And you mentioned Deputy -- I'm sorry, you
17 mentioned Sergeant Bliss and you mentioned a
18 captain. Who was that?

19 A. I believe it was Captain Adams at the time,
20 yes.

21 Q. Were there any other supervisors there who
22 you remember providing information about Mr. Hymes?

23 A. Not specifically.

24 You know, the other thing is we have this
25 every day, so I just happen to know that, you know,

PAUL TIMPANO

1 it's not uncommon to have the captain to the senior
2 deputy, you know, communicating information to us.

3 Q. Yeah. I'm only asking what you actually
4 remember. And I understand that --

5 A. Got it.

6 Q. -- you might --

7 A. No, I'm going to say that I remember the
8 sergeant, I remember the captain. And that's what I
9 remember, yeah.

10 Q. And that was -- did you have muster at 11 7:00 a.m.?

12 A. 6:45.

13 Q. About how long did that last?

14 A. Probably close to 15 minutes.

15 Q. And do you remember what you did after
16 muster on that day?

17 A. I don't remember what my assignment was.
18 It was somewhere in the back, but I don't remember
19 exactly where.

20 Q. What's -- excuse me. What's the next thing
21 you remember relating to Mr. Hymes?

22 A. The next thing I remember was Mr. Hymes
23 causing a disturbance.

24 Q. In what way was he causing a disturbance?

25 A. Making threats, yelling, screaming.
